

New Zappos Outlet in Vegas!

Contributed by Lisa
Wednesday, 31 January 2007
Last Updated Sunday, 11 February 2007

Zappos

just opened an outlet in Las Vegas! According to a staff member, it stocks more than 20,000 pairs of shoes. You can find it just north of the Silverton Casino, in the Safari Business Park, 7770 S. Dean Martin Drive. This is where all the Zappos.com closeouts and returns are unloaded to the public at prices so low they're not sellable from the Zappos website. The sign is now visible from the I-15 driving into Vegas.

There are some markdowns for shoes that were scuffed before being returned that are at 90% off of retail. Last time I went the lines weren't bad, but there were a LOT of people there shopping. Of course, if a trip to Vegas isn't in your near future (too bad!) you can still get some great deals at the regular online store: Zappos.com Women's Shoes